Photoshop 2021 (Version 22.1.1)

Taking a moment to find out what Photoshop is Photoshop is an extensive program with many features that can make even professionals cringe in frustration. To make matters worse, it's a program that is expensive, as well as very complex. What is the benefit of all this complexity? Is there any reason why you'd pay hundreds to hundreds of dollars for such a feature-rich program? Photoshop offers many editing tools and features, including a layer-based editing system, some of the most popular image-altering programs — like sharpening, softening, brightness and contrast, and more — plus the ability to view images and manipulate them in a variety of ways, including cropping, resizing, rotating, flipping, aligning, and rendering. If you are a beginner, most of these editing features aren't likely to be necessary. In fact, the complexity of Photoshop can be an obstacle to beginners. If you simply must have one of those features, find a friend who is an expert with Photoshop, borrow one of their old tutorials, or simply purchase a training DVD or book to better learn the basics. ## Renaming and Copying Images Whether you make art from your computer or you photograph your holiday destinations, you'll want to protect your images from unwanted accidents. In the same way that you make sure you don't breathe in paint, you need to give some thought to your computer image file naming scheme.

By By Justin King Oct 11, 2015 in Crime North Carolina - Two Canadian teens have been sentenced to two years probation and 40 hours of community service for plotting to bomb a Charlotte, North Carolina restaurant. The teens received the sentence under an agreement that they will plead guilty to a lesser charge of conspiracy and avoid a trial. "The court has been handed sentencing papers from the Crown and those papers were read into the record," said Jason Woodard, prosecutor for Mecklenburg County District Attorney. "The proposed sentence is two years probation, 40 hours of community service, and a fine of $100.00." "The court has been handed sentencing papers from the Crown and those papers were read into the record," said Jason Woodard, prosecutor for Mecklenburg County District Attorney. "The proposed sentence is two years probation, 40 hours of community service, and a fine of $100.00." Both teens were members of the Bloods street gang and were solicited online by a man with apparent ties to the A "All they wanted to do was to shoot a gun and see what would happen," said Woodard. "There were no plans to actually go and do it." Woodard said the teens didn't appear at the restaurant because they thought the alleged plotters would be arrested. Each of the teens was charged with one count of conspiracy to commit a felony. They pleaded not guilty. This week, the two teens were In court, the prosecutor asked the judge to sentence the teens to four and a half years in prison. "We believe that this is in the best interest of the community," said Woodard, "However, they did not go through the proper procedure to make that final determination." "A couple of the young men will continue to receive treatment for certain issues that they have," said Woodard. North Carolina, Mecklenburg County District Attorney's Office plans to appeal if the teens don't fulfill all of their terms of probation. The teens were identified as Chaz and Christian McCullars, both 19 years old, and Cody Gray, also 19, from an annual all-star basketball game in which approximately 300 teens are selected to participate.Chaz McCullars met the online man through social media last December. Christian and Chaz traveled to Charlotte to meet up with the alleged conspirators. There, McCullars is accused of providing the cash for the teens to buy two 9 mm handguns, a.22 caliber pistol and money to place in a Walmart bag for the plot. Also read: Canadian teens arrested
